Welcome Back to the Melrose Victorian Fair!

The 2009 Victorian Fair promises all the fun and excitement of years' past, along with some new events that will fill the weekend of the Victorian Fair. Some things that are in the planning stages are a Victorian tea, a vintage baseball game, and a fireworks display and outdoor concert. Clearly this is an event you will not want to miss!

The core of the Victorian Fair will remain the same; Main Street will once again be transformed into a pedestrian mall with booths for businesses, craftspeople and civic organizations. Live entertainment and rides will naturally be a part of the event along with wonderful food.

We hope you will be a part of this community event that brings over 10,000 people to Main Street in Melrose. So, mark your calendars for Sunday, September 13, 2009 (rain date September 20) and join us once again for the Victorian Fair.

Please complete the enclosed forms and return them to the Chamber of Commerce along with your check. Note too that there is a significant discount for those booths or spaces reserved by August 1st. If you would like to be included in the Melrose Free Press special guide to the Victorian Fair, we will need to confirm your participation by August 10th.

See you on Main Street!

Sincerely,

Joan Ford Mongeau
